Warren County Kids Voting November 5th - Mock Voting Day

In partnership with Warren County Cooperative Extension, Warren County Memorial Library is hosting a series of children's programs that teaches the importance of voting to the next generation. The finale, a mock voting day, will take place at the library on November 5th. For more information call Ky'el Owens at 252-257-4990.

November Wellness Topic: Sunlight for the Soul: Understanding Seasonal Affective Disorder

November 21st @ 4:30pm

Join us for a one-hour class diving into Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), a condition that goes beyond the winter blues. Discover the science behind SAD, its symptoms, and effective coping strategies. Whether you're affected or supporting someone who is, this session offers insights to brighten the darker seasons of the mind.

Teen Video Game Club - Special Lock-In Program

November 22nd @ 3:30pm - 10:00pm

Teenagers and young adults are invited to a chaperoned evening of fellowship and video games in this special after-hours program. Registration and signed permission slips are required. Space is limited and will be granted on a first come, first served basis. Pizza will be served.

After School Learning Lounge

Tuesdays in November @ 3:30pm - 5:00pm

This program allows students to help each other with questions regarding their homework and studies, become reading buddies, and have a light snack. Student volunteers from Haliwa-Saponi Tribal School will be present each week to provide help. This is not a drop-off program; parents must remain at the library with their students. The program will run through December 10th.

Space is limited, call 252-257-4990 and signup today.

Tech Time: 1-on-1 Assistance

Wednesdays in November @ 12:00pm - 2:00pm

Seniors, or anyone else that wants to improve their skills in using technology, stop by the library on Wednesdays between noon and two for 1-on-1 assistance with what you would like to learn. Library staff will assist and guide you through using library computers or your own tech so that you can accomplish your goals.

Library Closings

The library is closed November 11th in observance of Veteran's Day and November 28th - 30th in observance of Thanksgiving.
